

Winter Series

A FREE Program of the Morro Bay Library

2012

*For the comfort of all attending, please
come fragrance free.*

Morro Bay Book Discussion Group

JOIN US!

Wednesdays 10am - Noon

January 11.... The Book Thief by Markus Zusak

Trying to make sense of the horrors of World War II, Death relates the story of Liesel--a young German girl whose book-stealing and story-telling talents help sustain her family and the Jewish man they are hiding, as well as their neighbors.

January 18.... Spies of the Balkans by Alan Furst

As war approaches northern Greece, the spies begin to circle--from the Turkish legation to the German secret service. In the ancient port of Salonika, Costa Zannis, a senior police official, head of an office that handles special "political" cases, risks everything to secure an escape route for those hunted by the Gestapo.

February 1 The Bonesetter's Daughter by Amy Tan

Ruth and her widowed mother, LuLing, have always had a tumultuous relationship. Now, before she succumbs to forgetfulness, LuLing gives Ruth some of her writings, which reveal a side of LuLing that Ruth has never known. The truth that Ruth learns from her mother's past will forever change her perception of family, love, and forgiveness.

February 8 The Happiness Project by Gretchen Rubin

A thoughtful and prescriptive work on happiness filled with practical advice, sharp insight, charm, and humor.

February 15.. Little Bee by Chris Cleave

This is the story of two women and how their lives collide; the choices they make and what happens when they meet again two years later.

March 7 I Still Dream About You by Fannie Flagg

Birmingham real estate agent and former Miss Alabama, Maggie Fortenberry learns valuable lessons about the nature of friendship, the challenges of modern life, and the dangers of impossible dreams as she struggles to keep her Realty afloat and bury the heartbreaking secrets of her past.

March 14..... In the Neighborhood – the Search for Community on an American Street, One Sleepover at a Time by Peter Lovenheim

In partnership with Cuesta College's Book of the Year program, we will discuss this author's quirky, heartfelt quest to meet the neighbors – and to rediscover what it means to live as more than strangers next door.

March 21 Corduroy Mansions by Alexander McCall Smith

A delightful new setting – London – a wonderful new cast of characters and one incredibly clever dog. Corduroy Mansions is the affectionate nickname given to a genteel, crumbling mansion block in London's vibrant Pimlico neighborhood.

For more info contact the Group Facilitator: Karen at (805) 225-3131
Karen@morrobaybookdiscussiongroup.org
or go to: www.morrobaybookdiscussiongroup.org

Winter Series

A FREE Program of the Morro Bay Library

2012

*For the comfort of all attending, please
come fragrance free.*

Morro Bay Book Discussion Group

JOIN US!

Wednesdays 10am - Noon

January 11.... The Book Thief by Markus Zusak

Trying to make sense of the horrors of World War II, Death relates the story of Liesel--a young German girl whose book-stealing and story-telling talents help sustain her family and the Jewish man they are hiding, as well as their neighbors.

January 18.... Spies of the Balkans by Alan Furst

As war approaches northern Greece, the spies begin to circle--from the Turkish legation to the German secret service. In the ancient port of Salonika, Costa Zannis, a senior police official, head of an office that handles special "political" cases, risks everything to secure an escape route for those hunted by the Gestapo.

February 1 The Bonesetter's Daughter by Amy Tan

Ruth and her widowed mother, LuLing, have always had a tumultuous relationship. Now, before she succumbs to forgetfulness, LuLing gives Ruth some of her writings, which reveal a side of LuLing that Ruth has never known. The truth that Ruth learns from her mother's past will forever change her perception of family, love, and forgiveness.

February 8 The Happiness Project by Gretchen Rubin

A thoughtful and prescriptive work on happiness filled with practical advice, sharp insight, charm, and humor.

February 15.. Little Bee by Chris Cleave

This is the story of two women and how their lives collide; the choices they make and what happens when they meet again two years later.

March 7 I Still Dream About You by Fannie Flagg

Birmingham real estate agent and former Miss Alabama, Maggie Fortenberry learns valuable lessons about the nature of friendship, the challenges of modern life, and the dangers of impossible dreams as she struggles to keep her Realty afloat and bury the heartbreaking secrets of her past.

March 14..... In the Neighborhood – the Search for Community on an American Street, One Sleepover at a Time by Peter Lovenheim

In partnership with Cuesta College's Book of the Year program, we will discuss this author's quirky, heartfelt quest to meet the neighbors – and to rediscover what it means to live as more than strangers next door.

March 21 Corduroy Mansions by Alexander McCall Smith

A delightful new setting – London – a wonderful new cast of characters and one incredibly clever dog. Corduroy Mansions is the affectionate nickname given to a genteel, crumbling mansion block in London's vibrant Pimlico neighborhood.

For more info contact the Group Facilitator: Karen at (805) 225-3131
Karen@morrobaybookdiscussiongroup.org
or go to: www.morrobaybookdiscussiongroup.org